

Simple Future Tense (will + base verb): This form of future simple tense is used when you are deciding future plans at the moment.

For example: If someone asked you to go to the park with them on the weekend, you could answer, "Yes, I will go."

Complete the replies below by filling in the blanks with the proper personal pronoun followed by will or will not according to the question.

1. Will they play?

Yes, _____ play.

2. Will Min hit the bins?

Yes, _____ hit the bins.

3. Will Fin find a kit?

No, _____ find a kit.

4. Will Fin and Min get the pin?

No, _____ get the pin.

5. Will the man let them win?

Yes, _____ let them win.

